

Jacob M. Brostoff, MURP

mastransit.net | jacob@mastransit.net

Professional Experience:

City of Portland-Office of Neighborhood Involvement Portland, Oregon, USA
Crime Prevention Coordinator, 2011 – present

City of Portland-Bureau of Planning and Sustainability Portland, Oregon, USA
City Planner, 2009 – 2010

City of Portland-Bureau of Development Services Portland, Oregon, USA
City Planner, 2005 – 2009

Southeast Uplift Portland, Oregon, USA
Neighborhood Planner, 2004-2005

1000 Friends of Oregon Portland, Oregon, USA
Transportation Advocate, 2001-2003

City of Portland-Commissioner's Office Portland, Oregon, USA
Intern, 2000

City of Portland-Office of Transportation Portland, Oregon, USA
Staff Assistant, 1999-2000

City of St. Helens St. Helens, Oregon, USA
Planning Assistant, 1997-1999

Education:

Portland State University Portland, Oregon, USA
MURP, Master of Urban and Regional Planning, Environmental Policy specialization, 2005

McGill University Montréal, Québec, Canada
BA, Bachelor of Arts in Linguistics, 1996

Selected Projects:

másTransit*, winning entry, LA Beyond Cars, railLA: Los Angeles, California, USA 2010
International competition.

Young Planners Award*, International Federation for Housing and Planning: Berlin, Germany, 2009
International competition.

másTransit* entry, 1st Place, A New Infrastructure: Los Angeles, California, USA, 2009
International competition with jury including Thom Mayne, Neil Denari, Eric Owen Moss.